

SWIMSUIT DESIGNER JOHNNY VINCENT DEBUTS SUMMER 2007 AT BIKINI UNDER THE BRIDGE

JUNE 24, 2007 On June 24, 2007 at 7pm (Tobacco Warehouse - Water & Dock Streets - Brooklyn Bridge Park- DUMBO), talented swimsuit designer Celeste Johnny presents the NYC premiere of Johnny Vincent Summer 2007 as part of JRG Entertainment's 2nd Annual Bikini Under the Bridge swimsuit fashion event. Doors open at 6pm. Other top designers include the Creative Director of both Barbados and St. Kitts Fashion weeks - Roger Gary; Mitchell Awards 2000 Menswear Designer of the Year - Francis Hendy and Brooklyn's William Fleet's TBA (To Be African).

Following a successful Caribbean tour, Johnny Vincent brings back glamour and style while highlighting Caribbean culture at its best. A stunning presentation of exotic accessories, vibrant colors, long lines and sexy cutouts, Johnny Vincent sets the trend by creating a fresh perspective for every figure. Visit www.JohnnyVincent.com for purchases, updates, new trends, fabrics and tour schedule. Johnny Vincent Swimwear is also available at the Hilton Hotel in Barbados. With a keen sense of style and saucy Caribbean roots Celeste created Johnny Vincent Swimwear - a beautiful representation of spirit, energy and love for life - in 2005. Every piece is a reflection of her personality – sexy, sassy, soft and sensuous. Her eye for vibrant color schemes, majestic fabrics and glamorous accessories gives her clients the confidence to bring “style” back to the beaches. “Never again should a woman feel ashamed of her shape or feel the need to cover up. Johnny Vincent is about loving oneself and feeling beautiful on the inside and out.” – (Celeste Johnny – Johnny Vincent Designs.)